10. Appendix I

    Resolution in support of a Latino Studies Minor

    Whereas Latinos are the largest minority group in the United States, and

    Whereas Latinos are the largest minority student group at the University of Iowa and in the state of Iowa, and

    Whereas universities across the nation are offering Latino Studies majors or minors, and

    Whereas the University of Iowa is the only Big 10 institution that does not have an institutional form of Latino Studies, and

    Whereas numerous undergraduate and graduate students, including representatives of the UI student organization ALMA, Association of Latino's Moving Ahead, as well as faculty from Spanish and Portuguese, History, English, Theater Arts, and Communication Studies have expressed interest and support for the creation of a Latino Studies minor, and

    Whereas the College of Liberal Arts & Sciences (CLAS) mission is to serve as a model for a culturally diverse and globally conscious environment, and

    Whereas CLAS endeavors to provide academic programs that prepare our students to be knowledgeable citizens of the 21st century and empower them to meet the challenges of a rapidly changing world, and
Whereas the CLAS Strategic plan for 2011-15 pledges to develop and enhance programs of study in areas important to students’ aspirations and global societal needs, including interdisciplinary programs in areas supported by UI and CLAS faculty cluster initiatives, Therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Graduate Student Senate (GSS) support the addition of a Latino Studies minor to be available by the fall of 2014 and be it

Resolved, That the GSS Executive Council advocate for this initiative in their discussions with Dean Chaden Djalali and President Sally Mason.
